May 2012

WELCOME

People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it. And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them. Mark 10:14-16

Touch of Glaze

Touch of Glaze, Saturday, May 5th from 1:00-4:00. This is an event for all ages! Touch of Glaze is a ceramics studio where you can paint your own pottery and make it into your very own colorful and unique work of art. The price of this event is only the cost of the piece of pottery you choose. Prices range from $2.99 to $60.00 with the average prices being $8.00 to $25.00. Bowls, vases, mugs, magnets, gift boxes and many other items are available! There is something for everyone! Also if anyone would like to bring some bars or cookies to have as we are being creative that would be great! We are limited to 30 people so sign up today!

Skateland

Skateland in Waukesha (1931 East Main St, Waukesha 53186), Sunday, May 20th from 1:00 to 3:00. Ready for some skating? Plan to have a great time trying to stay on your feet! There is a $5.00 entrance fee and $2.00 for skates. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Sign up to join in the fun!

Book Club

The next book club is Thursday, May 3 at 6:30 at church. We are reading the book “The Last Time I Saw You” by Elizabeth Berg.

This novel is about women and men reconnecting with one another—and themselves—at their fortieth high school reunion. To each of the men and women in The Last Time I Saw You, this reunion means something different—a last opportunity to say something long left unsaid, an escape from the bleaker realities of everyday life, a means to save a marriage on the rocks, or an opportunity to bond with a slightly estranged daughter, if only over what her mother should wear. As the onetime classmates meet up over the course of a weekend, they discover things that will irrevocably affect the rest of their lives. In this beautiful novel, Elizabeth Berg deftly weaves together stories of roads taken and not taken, choices made and opportunities missed, and the possibilities of second chances. Everyone is welcome! Come and join in a great discussion, have some fellowship and a delicious dessert! Bring your own beverage and have a relaxing evening! We will pick the next book on this day. Hope to see you there!

Laser Tag Thanks!

There were 30 people who explored the ruins of King Solomon’s stronghold and attempted to defend the world from enemies set on world domination on a Sunday afternoon! Laser tag was a great time for all warriors of faith! Thanks to everyone for participating!

Crafter’s Corner

Our next crafter’s corner will be Saturday, May 26th from 9:00am to 9:00pm in the gathering area at church. The theme for this crafter’s corner food will be picnic food so sign up to bring a favorite main dish, salad, side or dessert and don’t forget to bring your own beverage. All are welcome! Whether you sew, knit, quilt, scrapbook or any other craft, come and join in some great fellowship and crafting. Stay for part of the day or the whole day! Hope to see you there!

Family Movie Night

Make room for some valuable family time and come enjoy pizza, ice cream and the movie “Mr. Popper’s Penguins” on Saturday, April 28th at 5:00 at church!

THIS IS A FREE EVENT! Chill out with the funniest family comedy of the year! Jim Carey stars as Mr. Popper, a successful businessman who’s clueless when it comes to the really important things in life (like his kids)...until he gets an unexpected present... six “adorable” penguins. Soon Popper’s rambunctious roommates turn his swank New York apartment into a snowy winter wonderland—and the rest of his world upside down. We will eat pizza then watch the movie and have an intermission of eating ice cream sundaes! Sign up today to join in the fun! Anyone and everyone is welcome!
