WELCOME

Keep on loving each other as brothers. Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.

Hebrew 13: 1-2

A Special Thank You!

A special thank you to all of those who donated their time and/or materials for the Community Christmas. A total of 12 blankets, 24 dozen cookies, 100 bookmarks, 40 Christmas cards and many ornaments were made. The blankets and cookies were delivered to the Hebron House who were delighted to have them. The ornaments now adorn the tree outside the sanctuary. The bookmarks and Christmas cards were passed out to the residents of Linden Heights Assitive Living by the children during our Christmas caroling. It was truly wonderful to see their smiling faces and their many words of thanks. It was a very heartwarming experience and one we hope to continue!

We also want to thank those who went Christmas caroling! We had a great group that was strong in spirit and song! A special thank you also to Mike, Janice and Emily Suchecki for opening their home to us for cookies and hot chocolate again this year! A warm fire is a treat and a chance for fellowship during this holiday season is always so special!

God's blessings to you all and may the New Year bring with it much joy, peace and happiness to you and your families.

Book Club

The next book club is Thursday, January 5 at 6:30 at church. We are reading the book “Why My Next Husband Will Be A Dog” by Lisa Scottoline. Lisa is the author of several thrillers featuring women and the writer of the weekly Chick Wit column in the Philadelphia Inquirer. She offers a collection of her published columns and additional commentary on life from a woman’s perspective. Her columns feature the people in her life—mom (aka Mother Mary), brother, daughter, friends, and her pets, including four dogs of long and faithful companionship, thus the title of the book. Everyone is welcome. Come and join in a great discussion, have some fellowship and a delicious dessert! Bring your own beverage and have a relaxing evening! We will pick the next book on this day!
